MIT Academy of Engineering, Pune, proudly hosts the 1st International Conference on Innovations in Computing and Emerging Technologies (ICoICET 2026), technically co-sponsored by IEEE Bombay Section — a premier global forum to explore, share, and shape transformative advancements in computing and emerging technologies. ICoICET 2026 offers a dynamic platform for researchers, academicians, industry leaders, and students to present and discuss innovations across a broad spectrum of computing domains. The conference emphasizes interdisciplinary innovation and real-world impact, featuring keynote addresses by leading experts, peer-reviewed paper presentations, interactive panel discussions, immersive workshops, and engaging exhibitions. Participants will benefit from vibrant knowledge exchange, strategic networking, and collaborative opportunities to drive the future of technology.

Conference Tracks

- Intelligent Systems: Artificial Intelligence & Machine Learning
- Data-Driven Discovery: Big Data, Analytics & Knowledge Engineering
- Intelligent Connectivity: IoT, Edge, and Cloud
- Trust & Security: Cybersecurity, Privacy & Blockchain
- Human-Centered Design: Immersive & Interactive Technologies
- Responsible Innovation: Computing for Society & Sustainability
- Smart Automation: Robotics, Autonomous Systems & Industry 5.0
